

The Key of my Heart - Mr Woods

O ma - dam I pre - sent - you a fine coach and six and four black hors - es as black as an - y pitch, if you will walk a - broad with me, if you will walk a - broad with me.

Oh madam I present to you a fine coach and six
and four black horses as black as any pitch,
if you will walk abroad with me;
if you will walk abroad with me.

2
Oh I won't accept your fine coach and six
and four black horses as black as any pitch.
And I won't walk abroad with you;
and I won't walk abroad with you.

3
Oh madam I present to you a fine easy chair to set in the garden and to take the morning air,
if you will walk abroad with me;
if you will walk abroad with me.

4
Oh I won't accept your fine garden chair
to set in the garden and to take the morning air,
and I won't walk abroad with you;
and I won't walk abroad with you.

5
Oh madam I present to you a fine silken gown
four yards long all a-trailed to the ground,
if you will walk abroad with me;
if you will walk abroad with me.

6
Oh I won't accept your fine silken gown
four yards long, all a-trailed to the ground,
and I won't walk abroad with you;
and I won't walk abroad with you

7
Oh madam I present to you a fine gold watch
to hang by your side to tell what's the time,
if you will walk abroad with me;
if you will walk abroad with me.

8
Oh I won't accept your fine gold watch
.to hang by your side to tell what's the time,
and I won't walk abroad with you;
and I won't walk abroad with you.

9
Oh madam I present to you the key of my chest and all the gold and jewels I possess,
if you will walk abroad with me;
if you will walk abroad with me.

10
Oh I won't accept the key of your chest, and all the gold and jewels you possess,
and I won't walk abroad with you;
and I won't walk abroad with you.

11
Oh madam I present to you the key of my heart and married we will be and will never, never part,
if you will walk abroad with me,
if you will walk abroad with me.

12
Oh I will accept the key of your heart
and married we will be and will never, never part,
and I will walk abroad with you,
and I will walk abroad with you.
