Old King Cole possibly from William 'Barlow' Debbage

Old King Cole was a mer - ry old soul and a mer - ry old soul was he. He called for his pipe and he called for a light and he called for his sold - iers three.

*A

*B C

Ev - 'ry sol - dier had a ve - ry fine mug, and a ve - ry fine mug had he.

Verse 7 / Verse 6

Too - tle oo - says the pip - per - ! Tang - a - tang - goes the fid - dler - !

Verse 5 / Verse 4

Ding, ding - a - ling - goes the har - per - ! In and out the sole - goes the cob - bler - !

Verse 3 / Verse 2

God have mer - cy on us cries the par - son - ! Damn and blast your eyes - said the sai - lors - !

Verse 1

Fetch us in the beer - said the sol - diers as hap - py as can be. And there's none so fair as can com - pare with the sons of har - mo - ny.

Alan Helsdon June 2017

*A This word changes every verse

*B At this point go to 'Verse 1' first time through.
Second time go to 'Verse 2' and then 'Verse 1' & etc