

THE CONSTANT FARMER'S SON

Vaughan Williams gives an illegible reference to the Folksong Journal for the words of this song.

Come all you pretty fair maids and listen to my song
While I relate a story that does to love belong
It's of a blooming damsel walked through the fields so gay
And there she met her true love who unto her did say

The constant farmers son

Handwritten musical score for 'The constant farmers son'. The score is written on three staves of music in treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a common time signature (C). The lyrics are written below the notes.

Come all you pretty fair maids and listen to my song while I relate a story that does to love belong 'tis of a blooming damsel walked through the fields so gay and there she met her true love who unto her did say

For text see English Traditional Songs and Carols
L Broadwood