

NEW GARDEN FIELDS

In Vaughan Williams' manuscript he gives the first verse and then refers for words to book of ballad sheets. In the Folk Song Journal Vol 8 both Mr Broomfield's tune with the first verse and then Mr Punt's tune are printed with a set of words completed from a Such ballad sheet. Were the words added to Mr Broomfield's verse in the manuscript copied from the ballad sheet?

Come all you pretty fair maids I pray you now attend Unto these few lines I am just going to (1) pen
(2) write
She's my study (by day) and my dreams all the night

New Garden Fields

Come all you pretty fair maids I pray you now attend un-to these few lines I am just going to (1) pen she's my stu- dy [by day] and my dreams all the night