

COME ALL YOU MERRY SPORTSMEN

Come all you merry sportsmen that is fond of hunting
If you meet a fair damsel as you ride along
Don't make any bargain with her
Or she'll surely deceive you
She will take your horse from you and make you walk home

Come all you merry sportsmen

The image shows a handwritten musical score for the song "Come all you merry sportsmen". The score is written on three staves of music, each with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The lyrics are written below the notes. The first staff contains the first line of the song: "Come all you merry sportsmen that is fond of hunting if you meet a fair". The second staff contains the second line: "damsel as you ride along don't make any bargain with her or she'll surely de-". The third staff contains the third line: "ceive you she will take your horse from you and make you walk home". The music is written in a simple, folk-like style with quarter and eighth notes.
