

SILVERY SILVERY

This song was noted by Vaughan Williams at the Old Dog East Horndon. He notes that Silvery was sung instead of Sylvia and refers to Lord Bateman.

Silvery Silvery
Oh one day she dressed her self in man's array

Silvery silvery.

Handwritten musical notation for the song "Silvery Silvery". The notation is written on three staves in treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#). The first staff begins with a treble clef and a sharp sign, followed by a series of eighth and quarter notes. The lyrics "sil - very sil - v'ry on one day she dressed herself in" are written below the first staff. The second staff continues the melody with similar note values, and the lyrics "mans array" are written below it. The third staff concludes the piece with a final note and a double bar line.
